

Ellen Ahrens

Civil & Environmental Engineer

Education

Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) (Civil and Environmental)
University of Adelaide, 2002

Graduate Diploma of Divinity, 2019
The Australian College of Theology (BCSA)

Key Skills / Qualifications

Water and Wastewater Engineering
Stormwater design
Project management
Engineering Services

Responsibilities and Experience

Ellen is a qualified Civil and Environmental Engineer with over four years' experience in engineering consulting. She has technical and job management skills in a wide variety of civil and environmental related projects and a keen interest in water and wastewater engineering and water re-use. She has also enhanced her research, communication and people skills through the completion of a Graduate Diploma.

Ellen's areas of experience include:

- Wastewater Systems;
- Stormwater drainage;
- Water Supply;
- Project management;
- Hydrology and flood mapping;
- Water sustainability audits;
- Environmental impact studies;
- Road Design;
- Traffic planning; and
- Subdivision design.

Employment Summary

2019 – Present	Civil & Environmental Engineer, HDS Australia Pty Ltd
March – June 2009	Academic Staff, School of Civil and Environmental Engineering, University of Adelaide
2007 – 2009	Civil & Environmental Engineer (Casual), GHD Pty Ltd
2003 – 2006	Civil & Environmental Engineer, GHD Pty Ltd
March – May 2002	Undergraduate Engineer (Casual), Factor UTB

Adelaide • Melbourne • Sydney • Hong Kong